

Dagoberto Salas Cordero

A recently graduated software engineer with a degree in Business Informatics from the University of Costa Rica.

📍 Alajuela, Costa Rica

DagoSalas1999@gmail.com • +506 72547109 • <https://www.linkedin.com/in/dagoberto-salas/>

About

Software engineer, passionate about web development and database management. willing to put into practice all the skills acquired throughout the career, as well as eager to learn new areas and techniques to expand knowledge.

Experience

Electroplast

2023 - 2023

Internship

I worked on a project based on Visual Basic for Applications and Create a module that was responsible for formulating and planning resins and dyestuffs, finally I used Microsoft SQL Server as database engine to collect the information.

Universidad de Costa Rica IT Department

2023 - 2023

Internship

I worked on a web app using Python and Django framework, performing automated testing using Selenium, using SCSS as a CSS preprocessor and JavaScript to manage tables created by Tabulator.js, finally I used GitHub and Git as a software version controller.

Education

Universidad de Costa Rica

2019 - 2023

Business Informatics Bachelor

Projects

Student API Web •

Web project implementing CRUD (Create, Read, Update, Delete) operations for student management using JavaScript and Tabulator.js, also you can download the student information in PDF or JSON format.

Country API Website •

This project will involve creating a web application where users can search for countries. The user will be able to filter by region, search by name, and click on a country to see more detailed information.

Skills

HTML

CSS3

JavaScript

Tailwind

MySQL

Python

Django

React

Github

Git